

Energy

Solenoid valve injector for common-rail systems

Precision fuel injection for high performance

Up to 2,500 bar

pressure for high engine performance

Up to ten individual injections per injection cycle for quiet and efficient combustion

- Technology proven millions of times over
- Robust design for selected and standardized country-specific fuel qualities
- Installation compatible across all pressure levels
- Flexible rate shaping